

My home is the only place that I can go and have privacy without being bothered by unwanted phone calls. I feel that I have the right to keep that privacy and do not want the no call list cancelled or weakened in any way.